

WILLIAMS ASKED TO QUIT GREEK POST

Minister's Criticism of the Powers Leads to Cabinet Action.

ENGLISH STATESMEN TREAT CASE AS JOKE

London Newspapers Print Announcements Without Comment, Except in Headlines.

Washington, July 4.—President Wilson has requested the resignation of George Fred Williams, American Minister to Greece and Montenegro, because of his criticisms of the European powers for their conduct in the matter of the Albanian question. This action was decided at yesterday's Cabinet meeting, and was the result of a second public statement made by the American Minister regarding the situation in Albania.

The diplomatic world was startled recently by published reports that the American Minister had circulated the powers offering his services as a mediator in the Albanian crisis. The State Department, on the direction of the President, called on Minister Williams for a report. This report, which it is understood, was accompanied by the Minister's resignation, was discussed at yesterday's Cabinet meeting, together with the second statement made by the Minister on the Albanian situation.

The Cabinet decided on his retirement from the diplomatic service. The President took prompt action, and, in addition, notified the State Department of the gravity of the situation, and intimated it was important that the powers should be acquainted with the fact that Minister Williams was acting without instructions from or the approval of the United States government.

So far as known the powers have made no representations to Washington over the minister's activities, but officials here would not have been surprised if they had.

London, July 4.—The English newspapers have printed the announcements of George Fred Williams, American Minister to Greece and Montenegro, on the subject of Albania without comment, except in the headlines. There they have received such labels as "Amazing Action by an American Minister," "The Times' Minister's Strange Statements," "The Times' yesterday headed Mr. Williams' second statement with the line 'American Minister's Further Indiscretions.'" "The Times" and "The Morning Post" said that Mr. Williams' course had created a great sensation and had excited amazement in the British Foreign Office and the London diplomatic set. The affair has caused great amusement. While officials here have refused to discuss the matter for publication, the Russian exponent of the simple life, who appeared early last night in Lexington av. in a white robe and sandals, caused a riot, and it took fifteen policemen to rescue the nature prophet. Also to escape the crowd he was forced to sacrifice his simple garb to the extent of having it covered by a policeman's raincoat, and to wear a borrowed hat.

CITY LIFE PUZZLES SIMPLE LIFE SAGE

Russian, in White Robe and Sandals, Flees to Police from Curious Crowds.

Ten thousand people fighting for a glimpse of the Russian nature prophet, the Russian exponent of the simple life, who appeared early last night in Lexington av. in a white robe and sandals, caused a riot, and it took fifteen policemen to rescue the nature prophet. Also to escape the crowd he was forced to sacrifice his simple garb to the extent of having it covered by a policeman's raincoat, and to wear a borrowed hat.

Camenskys on his arrival here a few weeks ago was detained at Ellis Island. He is twenty-six years old, and since an early age has lived on nuts and uncooked meats. He has worn only sandals and a white robe. From Ellis Island he went to visit Morris Beis, at 170 East 107th st.

The time he selected for appearing last night the streets were choked by thousands of people going to the scene of the explosion on Lexington av. Camenskys apparently rivaled the explosion as an attraction. He soon was thoroughly terrified at the antics of the crowd as the people fought to see him.

He was taken to the East 104th st. police station. The crowd waited outside, and finally Camenskys was forced to accept the offer of a policeman's raincoat and a hat in which to make his escape.

Jantzen's Reduction Sale

The most important shoe economy event of the day, as it enables you to secure high-grade footwear at positive and emphatic price-reductions, as follows:

SHOES Men's, reduced to... $3.85, $4.85, $5.85

OXFORDS Women's, reduced to... $2.85, $3.75, $4.75

PUMPS Children's, reduced to... $1.75, $2.50, $3.50

This affords buyers the opportunity of the season to secure genuine high-class footwear in the latest styles at substantial reductions from regular prices.

660 Sixth Av., above 38th St.
Custom Bootmaker for 50 Years.

H. Jantzen
SHOE CO.
N. Y.

Sheet Music Coupon.

In order to give our out of town subscribers the benefit of the sheet music given away with the Sunday Tribune in Greater New York only, this coupon and 2c will be accepted for one piece of sheet music to subscribers of The Tribune outside of Greater New York. Please indicate whether you desire vocal or instrumental.

Address Communications to the

SHEET MUSIC DEPARTMENT,
New York Tribune

PRESIDENT WILSON SPEAKING IN PHILADELPHIA.

WILSON SPEAKS IN PHILADELPHIA

(Continued from page 1)

a way that does not attract very much attention. "The members of the House and Senate who stay in hot Washington to maintain a quorum of the houses and transact public business are performing an act of patriotism."

"Now, the truth always matches the truth, and when I find gentlemen insisting that everything is going wrong when it is demonstrable that most things are going right I wonder what they are trying to do."

"It was universally admitted that the banking system of this country needed reorganization. We met with hardly anything but criticism from the bankers of the country. And yet just as soon as that act was passed there was a universal chorus of applause from the bankers."

"If American enterprise in foreign countries, particularly in those foreign countries which are not strong enough to resist us, take the shape of imposing upon and exploiting the mass of the people in that country, it ought to be put to a stop, not encouraged."

"Would you rather keep your treaty obligations or would you rather have free tolls for American ships? The treaty may have been a mistake, but its meaning was unmistakable."

"I want to say parenthetically that I don't think anybody was hurt."

"I am willing to get anything for an American that money can buy except the rights of other men."

"Eighty-five per cent of the Mexican people have never been allowed to have a look-in in regard to their government and the rights which have been exercised by the other 15 per cent."

"Upon the conclusion of the present disturbed condition in Mexico undoubtedly those who have lost properties ought to be compensated."

"No man can do the work he has to do in Washington if he allowed himself to feel lonely."

thing anywhere if he was an American. "Now, there is a limit to that. There is no man more interested than I am in carrying the enterprises of the United States all over the world. One of those simple things is principle."

"Honesty is a perfectly simple thing. It is hard for me to believe that when a man is dishonest he does not know what he is doing. I want to say parenthetically that I don't think anybody was hurt."

"I am willing to get anything for an American that money can buy except the rights of other men."

"Eighty-five per cent of the Mexican people have never been allowed to have a look-in in regard to their government and the rights which have been exercised by the other 15 per cent."

"Do you suppose that circumstance is not sometimes in my thought? I know the American people have a heart that will beat just as strong for those millions in Mexico as it will beat for any other millions anywhere else in the world, and when they once know what is at stake in Mexico they will know what ought to be done in Mexico."

"You hear a great deal stated about the property loss in Mexico, and I deplore it with all my heart. Upon the conclusion of the present disturbed condition in Mexico, undoubtedly those who have lost properties ought to be compensated."

"Man's individual rights have met with many deplorable circumstances, but back of it all is the struggle of the people, and while we think of the one in the foreground let us not forget the other in the background. Every patriotic American is a man who is not rigidly selfish in his things he needs that make for human liberty and the rights of man, but wants to share it with the whole world, and he is never so proud of the great flag as when it means for other people as well as himself the symbol of liberty and freedom."

Mission of the Flag. "I would be ashamed of this flag if I ever did anything outside of America that we would not permit it to do inside of America. The flag is the mass of the men, women and children who make up the vitality of every nation."

"While we were trying to get a front seat just now I was requested to turn around and address the distinguished company behind me because it was feared you could not hear, but I said that while I had a great respect for them, and even quite an affection for some of them, the real people were on this side (indicating the audience). If I had done anything else I could not have proved I spoke on Independence Day, because that great document written by that aristocrat, Thomas Jefferson, was written by a man whose heart was as big as all mankind, and he was thinking of them, not himself, when he penned that immortal document."

"The world is becoming more com-

SENTENCES FROM 'WILSON'S INDEPENDENCE DAY SPEECH

"The members of the House and Senate who stay in hot Washington to maintain a quorum of the houses and transact public business are performing an act of patriotism."

"Now, the truth always matches the truth, and when I find gentlemen insisting that everything is going wrong when it is demonstrable that most things are going right I wonder what they are trying to do."

"It was universally admitted that the banking system of this country needed reorganization. We met with hardly anything but criticism from the bankers of the country. And yet just as soon as that act was passed there was a universal chorus of applause from the bankers."

"If American enterprise in foreign countries, particularly in those foreign countries which are not strong enough to resist us, take the shape of imposing upon and exploiting the mass of the people in that country, it ought to be put to a stop, not encouraged."

"Would you rather keep your treaty obligations or would you rather have free tolls for American ships? The treaty may have been a mistake, but its meaning was unmistakable."

"I want to say parenthetically that I don't think anybody was hurt."

"I am willing to get anything for an American that money can buy except the rights of other men."

"Eighty-five per cent of the Mexican people have never been allowed to have a look-in in regard to their government and the rights which have been exercised by the other 15 per cent."

"Upon the conclusion of the present disturbed condition in Mexico undoubtedly those who have lost properties ought to be compensated."

"No man can do the work he has to do in Washington if he allowed himself to feel lonely."

thing anywhere if he was an American. "Now, there is a limit to that. There is no man more interested than I am in carrying the enterprises of the United States all over the world. One of those simple things is principle."

"Honesty is a perfectly simple thing. It is hard for me to believe that when a man is dishonest he does not know what he is doing. I want to say parenthetically that I don't think anybody was hurt."

"I am willing to get anything for an American that money can buy except the rights of other men."

"Eighty-five per cent of the Mexican people have never been allowed to have a look-in in regard to their government and the rights which have been exercised by the other 15 per cent."

"Do you suppose that circumstance is not sometimes in my thought? I know the American people have a heart that will beat just as strong for those millions in Mexico as it will beat for any other millions anywhere else in the world, and when they once know what is at stake in Mexico they will know what ought to be done in Mexico."

"You hear a great deal stated about the property loss in Mexico, and I deplore it with all my heart. Upon the conclusion of the present disturbed condition in Mexico, undoubtedly those who have lost properties ought to be compensated."

"Man's individual rights have met with many deplorable circumstances, but back of it all is the struggle of the people, and while we think of the one in the foreground let us not forget the other in the background. Every patriotic American is a man who is not rigidly selfish in his things he needs that make for human liberty and the rights of man, but wants to share it with the whole world, and he is never so proud of the great flag as when it means for other people as well as himself the symbol of liberty and freedom."

Mission of the Flag. "I would be ashamed of this flag if I ever did anything outside of America that we would not permit it to do inside of America. The flag is the mass of the men, women and children who make up the vitality of every nation."

"While we were trying to get a front seat just now I was requested to turn around and address the distinguished company behind me because it was feared you could not hear, but I said that while I had a great respect for them, and even quite an affection for some of them, the real people were on this side (indicating the audience). If I had done anything else I could not have proved I spoke on Independence Day, because that great document written by that aristocrat, Thomas Jefferson, was written by a man whose heart was as big as all mankind, and he was thinking of them, not himself, when he penned that immortal document."

"The world is becoming more com-

plexed every day. Therefore, no man ought to be foolish enough to think he understands it, and that is the reason why I am so glad to know there are some simple things in the world. One of those simple things is principle."

"Honesty is a perfectly simple thing. It is hard for me to believe that when a man is dishonest he does not know what he is doing. I want to say parenthetically that I don't think anybody was hurt."

"I am willing to get anything for an American that money can buy except the rights of other men."

"Eighty-five per cent of the Mexican people have never been allowed to have a look-in in regard to their government and the rights which have been exercised by the other 15 per cent."

"Do you suppose that circumstance is not sometimes in my thought? I know the American people have a heart that will beat just as strong for those millions in Mexico as it will beat for any other millions anywhere else in the world, and when they once know what is at stake in Mexico they will know what ought to be done in Mexico."

"You hear a great deal stated about the property loss in Mexico, and I deplore it with all my heart. Upon the conclusion of the present disturbed condition in Mexico, undoubtedly those who have lost properties ought to be compensated."

"Man's individual rights have met with many deplorable circumstances, but back of it all is the struggle of the people, and while we think of the one in the foreground let us not forget the other in the background. Every patriotic American is a man who is not rigidly selfish in his things he needs that make for human liberty and the rights of man, but wants to share it with the whole world, and he is never so proud of the great flag as when it means for other people as well as himself the symbol of liberty and freedom."

I. W. W. IN BATTLE AT GARIBALDI FETE

Break Into Staten Island Grounds and Beat Down Guards at Gate.

DESTROY ITALIAN FLAG AND HOIST THEIR OWN

Reserves from Five Precincts Quell Riot After Exercises Are Abandoned.

I. W. W. members clashed with members of Italian societies who were making ready for a Garibaldi celebration at Rosebank, Staten Island, yesterday afternoon, tore down an Italian flag, and substituted a red flag with a mourning band.

The disturbers then started for an American flag on a pole nearby, but before it came to any harm several citizens grabbed the I. W. W.'s nearest it and intimated what would happen if the emblem was disturbed. The hint had its effect.

The I. W. W. aggregation, about 200 strong, arrived early at the grounds. Refused admittance, the agitators knocked down several men stationed at the entrance to collect tickets, ripped down parts of the fence and made an assault on a two-story frame building, from which the flags were displayed, and from the veranda of which Consul General Farni was to make the address of the day.

Stones were hurled through windows during the fight for possession of the cottage, and the battle continued until reserves from five precincts on Staten Island came, under command of Captain Lantry.

Captain Lantry, after restoring order, tried to learn from the I. W. W. members, among whom were many Italians, the reason for their attack, but got no satisfaction. He arrested Samuel Capella, a cigarmaker, of 414 East 15th st., who is said to have been one of the I. W. W. leaders. He was charged with inciting riot and locked up in Stapleton.

The Italian Consul General was met at the station at Rosebank and was told of the disorder at the grounds. He returned at once to New York.

The grounds at Rosebank are maintained by several Italian societies. Heretofore admission to all fetes has been free, but it was agreed this year to charge a small admission fee to raise money to repair the cottage.

Whether the Italian members of the I. W. W., and their following objected to this could not be learned. No opportunity was given the men at the gate to explain the situation. It was a fight which became a riot in a short time that no one seemed to know just what the cause was.

After the police arrived the riot flag was lowered from the pole and a second Italian flag was hoisted. The riot flag was torn to shreds and trampled under the feet of the disturbers.

Reprimand for Evans. (From The Tribune Bureau.) Washington, July 4.—President Wilson will privately reprimand Brigadier General Robert C. Evans, former commander of the Department of the East, for his references to the United States as being the "most meddlesome country on earth" in a speech at a recent dinner in New York. Soon after the speech Brigadier General Evans was called upon by the Secretary of War for a report. General Evans said in his report that he had been misquoted and furnished his own version of his remarks. While the report was to a certain extent satisfactory, President Wilson decided that a private reprimand should be given the officer.

Health First. Drink Grape-Ola. The Grape Juice Concentrate. COSTS 1¢ as much to serve as ordinary Grape Juice. (At Soda Fountains) 5c. A large glass 10c.

AT YOUR GROCER. 20c. making 6 to a glass. 65c. making 20 to 22 glasses. 20c. making 6 to a glass. 65c. making 20 to 22 glasses. 20c. making 6 to a glass. 65c. making 20 to 22 glasses.

THE GRAPE-OLA CO. 25 Broad St., New York. Telephone 400-471 for Quilting. 400-471 for Quilting. 400-471 for Quilting.

Collie Puppies. $15. (Regularly $20 and up). These puppies, guaranteed, starting from the 1st of August, will be sold at $5.00 each. (Including food and other expenses). In perfect health, with white, long hair, and a beautiful coat. Will be immediately on receipt of order. Money refunded if not absolutely satisfied. No return policy. No return policy. No return policy.

PINE GROVE COLLIE KENNELS. Humson Road, Little Silver, N. J. 400-471 for Quilting. 400-471 for Quilting. 400-471 for Quilting.

HEAD'S ROUT PILLS. The old and famous remedy for all ailments in the head, face and limbs. E. F. ROGERS & CO., Inc. 90 Beekman St., N. Y.

BUSINESS AGENT ACCUSED

Charges of Extortion To Be Presented by U. S. Attorney.

Chicago, July 4.—Evidence of extortion by business agents of labor unions of large sums of money from manufacturers outside of Chicago and local contractors, Albert B. Hopkins, Assistant United States District Attorney, announced to-day, will be presented on July 13 to a special federal grand jury.

The government prosecutor said he would show that these agents have induced employers by threatening strikes, by refusing to deliver products and by other demands.

The evidence which Mr. Hopkins has collected in the last ten days shows that union members did not participate in the money collected, and that strikes were called to suit the whims of a business agent. Members were seldom consulted. Members of unions have urged that action be taken against these agents.

The investigation was started on charges made by John J. McLaughlin, contractor and state representative, but the government has found stronger cases. C. S. Kito, of Canton, Ohio, and George Bright, of Detroit, have furnished evidence which the District Attorney considered sufficient for a thorough investigation.

AIDS TRIAL MARRIAGES. Annulment Act Cupid's Lure to Girl Brides.

Patchogue, Long Island, July 4.—Justice Kelly, of Brooklyn, has just issued an interlocutory decree annulling the marriage of Mrs. Gladys Robinson Greene to her husband, Howard F. Greene, of this village, on the ground that the bride had not reached the proper age when she decided to wed, even though her parents approved the ceremony. Mrs. Greene is the eighteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Robinson. The wedding took place on the day the bridegroom was eighteen years old, in November, 1911. The bride was then in her fifteenth year.

Last winter the Greens took steps for a legal separation, which ceased when Mrs. Greene asked for an annulment.

Supreme Court Justice Giegerich, of Manhattan, asserts that Section 1771 under which Justice Kelly issued the annulment, practically grants trial marriage to all girls under sixteen who decide, with the consent of their parents, to try wedded life until they are nearly eighteen years old.

Then Woman, Detained by Policeman, Confesses Desertion. Mrs. Porishas Ewlishko, who had no home and could see no future for her four-months-old baby, wrapped him up in a truck in a vacant lot in East st.

The woman had been deserted by her husband and said she had not eaten for two days. The parks and doorways had been the sleeping places for the mother and child for some weeks. She couldn't obtain employment because of the child.

Patrolman Stern, of the Clinton st. station, saw the woman leave the lot, where wagons and auto trucks are stored, and became suspicious. He questioned her and took her back to the vacant yard. Then Mrs. Ewlishko broke down, told her story and led the policeman to the sleeping infant. Mother and child were taken to the House of Detention.

BOY POISONED BY WHISKY. Coney Island Outing Sends 10-Year-Old to Hospital.

Nathan Schemper, ten years old, of 336 New Jersey av., Brooklyn, and two other boys spent yesterday at Coney Island. When they boarded a train at Sheepshead Bay about 7 p. m., they were taken to a hospital. Nathan had been following every crier in the hope of being supported by his companions. He then refused to do anything but lie on the floor of the car. At Franklin av. the boys were put off the train and an ambulance was called.

Dr. Levy, of the Jewish Hospital, found the lad was in a serious condition from drinking whiskey.

MISS HALLIAN AND CHAUFFEUR CAUGHT. Girl Goes Home with Her Father—Eisenman Held on an Abduction Charge.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.) Portland, Me., July 4.—The search for Miss Fern Hallian, the eighteen-year-old daughter of Joseph Hallian, of Hull, Mass., who eloped last Wednesday with the family chauffeur, Louis Eisenman, ended here to-day, when the couple were arrested after identification by Mrs. Julia Roper, a telephone operator in the Falmouth Hotel.

When arrested in Elm st. by Sergeant Haskell the couple admitted that they were the elopers. At Police Headquarters Eisenman was placed in a cell and Miss Hallian was detained in the matron's room. Four hours after their arrest Joseph Hallian, the girl's father, arrived with Chief of Police F. M. Reynolds of Hull. Hallian embraced his daughter. Reynolds took Eisenman in custody and the couple were taken back to Hull late this afternoon, the girl going home with her father. Eisenman is held by the Hull police on the charge of abduction.

The couple said that they had been in Portland since last Thursday. While the police of New England have been following every crier in the hope of arresting them, Miss Hallian and Eisenman were in Portland shopping and going to moving picture shows. "I love Louis," said Miss Hallian, "and we will get married if we can. We have been in love for a long time and planned to run away several months ago."

CACHES SON UNDER TRUCK

Then Woman, Detained by Policeman, Confesses Desertion.

Mrs. Porishas Ewlishko, who had no home and could see no future for her four-months-old baby, wrapped him up in a truck in a vacant lot in East st.

The woman had been deserted by her husband and said she had not eaten for two days. The parks and doorways had been the sleeping places for the mother and child for some weeks. She couldn't obtain employment because of the child.

Patrolman Stern, of the Clinton st. station, saw the woman leave the lot, where wagons and auto trucks are stored, and became suspicious. He questioned her and took her back to the vacant yard. Then Mrs. Ewlishko broke down, told her story and led the policeman to the sleeping infant. Mother and child were taken to the House of Detention.

BOY POISONED BY WHISKY. Coney Island Outing Sends 10-Year-Old to Hospital.

Nathan Schemper, ten years old, of 336 New Jersey av., Brooklyn, and two other boys spent yesterday at Coney Island. When they boarded a train at Sheepshead Bay about 7 p. m., they were taken to a hospital. Nathan had been following every crier in the hope of being supported by his companions. He then refused to do anything but lie on the floor of the car. At Franklin av. the boys were put off the train and an ambulance was called.

Dr. Levy, of the Jewish Hospital, found the lad was in a serious condition from drinking whiskey.

MISS HALLIAN AND CHAUFFEUR CAUGHT. Girl Goes Home with Her Father—Eisenman Held on an Abduction Charge.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.) Portland, Me., July 4.—The search for Miss Fern Hallian, the eighteen-year-old daughter of Joseph Hallian, of Hull, Mass., who eloped last Wednesday with the family chauffeur, Louis Eisenman, ended here to-day, when the couple were arrested after identification by Mrs. Julia Roper, a telephone operator in the Falmouth Hotel.

When arrested in Elm st. by Sergeant Haskell the couple admitted that they were the elopers. At Police Headquarters Eisenman was placed in a cell and Miss Hallian was detained in the matron's room. Four hours after their arrest Joseph Hallian, the girl's father, arrived with Chief of Police F. M. Reynolds of Hull. Hallian embraced his daughter. Reynolds took Eisenman in custody and the couple were taken back to Hull late this afternoon, the girl going home with her father. Eisenman is held by the Hull police on the charge of abduction.

The couple said that they had been in Portland since last Thursday. While the police of New England have been following every crier in the hope of arresting them, Miss Hallian and Eisenman were in Portland shopping and going to moving picture shows. "I love Louis," said Miss Hallian, "and we will get married if we can. We have been in love for a long time and planned to run away several months ago."

ALL CARS TRANSFER TO "THE HOME OF TRUTH" Bloomingdale's 59th to 60th Street Lex. to 3d Av. Phone 3900

To-morrow—The Opening Day of Our Enormous Six-day "HOME OF TRUTH" Sale

A vast sale of specially timely and desirable merchandise, planned to drive home the fact that TRUTH is the KEYNOTE of our advertising.

Every single item is a SPECIAL VALUE—one that you will instantly appreciate when you see it.

Sale of Women's and Children's Shoes

None sent C. O. D. or exchanged. Formerly sold for $2.00, $2.50 and $3.00.

In the Bargain Centre on the Main Floor. This is an annual clean-up of odds and ends from our regular stock. Don't miss it! Wonderful bargains!

ALL CARS TRANSFER TO BLOOMINGDALES' LEX. TO 3D AVE. 59TH TO 60TH ST.

All of the Delights
None of the Regrets

95% OF THE CAFFEINE REMOVED

PERFECT COFFEE

Kaffee HAG

PERFECT COFFEE
95% OF THE CAFFEINE REMOVED

Kaffee HAG is not only free from Caffeine but is pure, cleaned coffee of the highest grade and produces a beverage that is safe for all to drink.

The first time you use Kaffee HAG you will probably notice that it is much stronger than the coffee you have been in the habit of using. This is easily explained—everything that is not coffee is taken away from the green bean, cleaning and refining it just as sugar is refined. Try it iced during the hot months.

IN THE BEAN ONLY
25 Cents the Package
All Dealers

Kaffee Hag Corporation, 225 Fifth Avenue, New York